OUR SPECIALIZATION TO LEAD

Our procurement department always source quality Yarn/Fabric from both local and foreign market.

From the sample making to production, we never compromise with the quality.

Always focus on competitive product prices and for our valued clients.

We've a highly experienced quality control team to inspect and maintain the quality standard of the goods before each shipment.

AURIC DEPARTMENT

MERCHANDISING

Our merchandisers bring deep industry experience and maintain trusted relationships with both clients and manufacturers. Their expertise in pricing strategy, product development, and compliance consistently ensures client satisfaction and reinforces our reputation for reliable, high-quality service.

DESIGN & DEVELOPMENT

Our technical team is actively engaged in pattern making, sample development, and approval processes. With precision and adaptability, they create samples tailored to each client's specifications—ensuring readiness for buyer orders and reinforcing our commitment to quality and responsiveness.

QUALITY CONTROL TEAM

Inspection is one of the major parts of garments business. We've highly experienced quality control team, involved in inline and final inspection to maintain quality standard of the goods before each shipment.

PRODUCTION MONITORING TEAM

The production monitoring team involves in checking all the activities those must be followed during production of goods and send day-wise report to the supervisor.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

ELEVATING EVERY STITCH

At the heart of our sweater production lies a rigorous, multi-stage Quality Assurance (QA) system—designed not only to meet global standards but to exceed customer expectations. We believe that quality is not a checkpoint; it's a continuous commitment into every fiber of our garments.

SOURCE OF YARN AND FABRIC

We take pride in sourcing the highest quality yarns and fabrics to support seamless sampling and production. With a commitment to excellence, we procure materials from both trusted local suppliers and globally renowned manufacturers, ensuring superior standards at every stage.

For sampling, we ensure that every fabric and yarn match exact buyer specifications. By working closely with designers and production teams, we guarantee that samples accurately reflect the final product's texture, color, and composition
